A journey through Sigmund Groven's fantastic career.

Join Sigmund Groven on a fantastic journey!

This double release came out on the occasion of Sigmund Groven's 50-year anniversary and is a tribute to one of the world's foremost harmonica players. The collection contains recordings dating back to the 1970s and until 1998, and summarizes more than 25 years of Groven's career. The release was met with high acclaim and was soon appointed by critics as a supernal piece of Norwegian music history.

Norwegian Musical Treasures

Much of the material on this collection has long been a part of Norwegian cultural heritage, including several classics such as the legendary "Så spiller vi harmonika". This is the first song Groven wrote, at the request from Erik Bye, who wrote the text. This was the beginning of a close cooperation and friendship between the two artists and together they have performed around the world. In addition, the release presents several previously unreleased recordings.

In Good Company

Groven is accompanied by a strong team of musicians on this album. A whole arsenal of the best artists contribute and pay tribute to Groven. These include artists such as Erik Bye, Robert Smith, Kirsten Braaten Berg, Sissel Kyrkjebø, Oslo Gospel Choir, Frode Alnæs, Arve Tellefsen and Groven's teacher and great role model, Tommy Reilly.

Tribute to a World Artist

Sigmund Groven is a renowned artist all over the world, and he is well known for his joyful tunes, musical talent and artistic innovation. I godt lag is a wonderful collection of music that reinforces Groven's important position, and honors his long and outstanding work as a composer and musician.
